LIEUT. GALLOGLY THOUGHT LIKELY JUDGE ADVOCATE

Capt. Edward K. Massee, judge advocate, Hawaiian department, left his office at headquarters in the Young building today, being transferred from there to join the 2d Infantry at Fort Shafter. Capt. Massee will not take up his duties at Fort Shafter for one month, however.

In June, Capt. Massee will take the transport for the mainland, though no orders have been issued assigning him to any certain post upon his arrival there.

No orders had been received today from Washington naming Capt. Massee's successor as judge advocate. James A. Gallogly, first lieutenant, C. A. C. Fort Ruger, is looked upon as a possible choice.

CPL. GLASER DESERTS

Cpl. Maurice S. Glaser, Company F, 1st Infantry, is listed as a deserter from Camp Haleiwa, Oahu, T. H., having left there on March 15. Army cards give Glaser's description as follows:

Age, 23 years and five months; occupation at time of enlistment, clerk; eyes, dark brown; hair, dark brown; complexion, fair; weight, 165 pounds; height, five feet six and one-fourth inches. Glaser enlisted at Fort McDowell, California, on June 4, 1911, for a term of seven years. His former home was at Yonkers, N. Y.

COMPANY C, N. G. H.—NOTICE.

Capt. Chas. R. Frazier, the new commander of Company C, desires that there be a full turnout of this command tonight at the armory at 7:30 o'clock sharp, in order that all who have not previously been issued uniforms may be completely outfitted for permanent use. Next Sunday morning at 9 o'clock Company C will be inspected by Col. C. S. Lincoln, and it is absolutely necessary that all members be present and ready for inspection at that time.

A smoker will follow the drill period tonight, and a general get-together and good time is anticipated.

Fish that can shock other fish with electric flashes from their eyes have been found along the New Jersey coast, according to a Princeton University scientist.
